Florence Fellowships
in Religious History and Religious Studies

Call for fellowship applications

The Sangalli Institute for the history and religious cultures offers the opportunity of a short research stay in Florence to young fellows of any nationality (included the Italians) affiliated to foreign universities and research centers, in order to create an effective and productive dialogue between the great cultural heritage of Florence and the world of the international researchers in the humanities specialized in the history of religions and religious studies, with special attention to the interfaith dialogue and interdisciplinary approaches.

For the first semester of the academic year 2017-2018, the Sangalli Institute offers 3 residential fellowships for young scholars of 1 month of duration (worth 2,000 euro each), to help covering living expenses and accommodation.

Accepted fellows are required to reside in Florence for the term of the fellowship. During their stay, fellows must deliver a seminar at the Sangalli Institute and participate to its scientific activities. The Sangalli Institute will be pleased to help with finding suitable accommodations in Florence.

Fellowships are tenable for one or more months (up to 2 months, according with the number of applications), from September 10 to December 20, 2017, and from January 10 to February 28, 2018.

Candidates for the fellowships must meet the three following requirements:

- a recognized research experience in the field of the religious history and religious studies (Theology, Arts, Literature, Political Sciences and Interreligious Dialogue)
- have been awarded a doctorate since no more than six years before the application due date
- being affiliated with universities or research centers outside of Italy.

Applicants are requested to send (in PDF files):

- a CV
- a four-page proposal for research to be carried out during the period of the fellowship, accurately mentioning the collections, libraries, archives or other sources of scientific institutions in Florence or in its surroundings to be used for the research activity.

The deadline for applications is July 10, 2017 by 12.00 pm (Italian hour - CET).

Application materials must be sent by e-mail to segreteria@istitutosangalli.it.

The fellowship winners will be announced by July 30, 2017 on the Sangalli Institute's website, www.istitutosangalli.it, on our Facebook page, www.facebook.com/istitutosangalli, and on our Twitter profile, twitter.com/Sangallistituto.

Florence, 1st June 2017

The President of the Sangalli Institute

Prof. Maurizio Sangalli
